To The May Family,

I am truly sorry for your loss. You have my heartfelt sympathy. God made a wonderful promise in Revelation 21:3-4,that(in His Kingdom)there will be no more pain,tears,mourning,and death. May you find comfort in God`s promise.

I came to know Rev. May and his family as they befriended and ministered to my friend Eileen McLeod St. John. They were so special to her and included her in many of their family dinners over the years. I will remember your father as a Godly gentleman, wise, kind and generous. My prayers are with you as you experience the holidays without him.

Our condolences to you as you mourn Rev. Mayâ€™s death. His gentle and faith-filled service to his Creator and his community will be remembered.with great affection. Mom and I join you in spirit as you celebrate his life and commend him to heaven. Iâ€™m sure Mom would tell you that her years working at Trinity with Mr. May were among the happiest due in large part to his character and care. You are in our prayers.Mary HackmanSusan Hackman Sturgeon
